

COMMUNITY AFFAIRS COMMISSION OFFICIAL SCRAPBOOK CONTEST RULES

1. Community Affairs Scrapbooks must be neat and in chronological order, encompassing an administrative year, from one Detachment Convention to the next Detachment Convention. Only activities and articles taking place in said administrative year may be submitted for judging.
2. All books to be considered for judging for the Community Affairs Commission Award must be submitted to the Detachment Adjutant, prior to the Detachment Convention.

If sent through the mail, it should be sent to Detachment Adjutant, Christian Rapp, 215 Greenwood Avenue, Lehigh Acres, FL 33936. Return receipt should be requested.

Scrapbooks must be submitted no later than Friday, Noon of Convention.

1. The articles, and other judging information contained in the scrapbook must be Community Affairs only. Guidelines are as follows:
 - A. Any publication in the newspaper relating to service provided, thank you letter from recipients of community service, or letters of acknowledgment. All submission must have proper dates indicating date which service was rendered.
 - B. Community Affairs is defined as any program or activity that directly benefits any person of the community or the community itself. It cannot be a project benefitting The American Legion or organizations within the scope of The American Legion.
2. All submissions must be properly bound to ensure that the pages are secure and will not become loose and fall out. The Commission takes no responsibility for books not adhering to this rule.
3. Scrapbooks may be submitted from and Squadron or District.
 - A. Submissions must identify the Squadron or District which it is from on the front cover of the scrapbook. All books must list a name and address to which the book can be returned. All books may be picked up after judging, except for the winner which will be submitted to National.
4. Submission used in service-related contest entries cannot be entered in the Community Affairs Scrapbook Contest

Contest Rules are adapted from the National Community Affairs Commission rules which were approved at the Fall 1980 meeting of the National Executive Committee, and revised at the Fall 1989 meeting of the National Executive Committee, the Sons of The American Legion.
